

Web Design Portfolio

My name is John Hunt and this is my portfolio for web design.

Sonic the Hedgehog Timeline: A timeline showcasing the history of Sonic the Hedgehog with clickable cards that describe each game.

Link doesn't work in blue highlighted format for some reason, works when you click in this format though.

NASA Space Explorer: A Website That Shows New Pictures Of Outer Space and Facts About Them Every Day. This website uses a photo API from the NASA website.
